Dearest Darling,

I recieved a letter from you yesterday that was dated Dec 31. It took over two weeks for it to get it. In it you didnt seem to know any more about when you are coming home.

I stayed home last night did all my work. I shortened a dress did my washing and my ironing and Ida came over. She's the only one that ever comes over to visit me.

I called up Isabel last night and she said Edward is going to work at the General Industries. We isn't going to school for a couple of months.

Darling, I hope that when you do come home you have a real nice trip on the boat. I kind of imagine I would be a poor sailor. But I would like to take a trip like that. Perhaps some day we will, Darling.

I noticed on your envelope you have a different A.P.O number so I puttem on. I hope it's right.

Darling, I love you so very much. I suppose my letters all sound kind of moratoriums, but I don't know what to write any more. all I can ^{think} about is that I want you home with me. you such a wonderful person to have around. I love everything you do, even when I have to toller at you in the bathroom in the morning.

In enclosing lots of hugs and kisses and all my love.

your own,

Fink
